Darwin-Gulf Savannah-Cairns 15 Day Tours

---

Travel from Darwin down to the Never Never before crossing through the expanse of the Gulf Country visiting the World Heritage Riversleigh fossil fields to reach the upper east coast of Australia at Cairns. This is an amazing camping Safari visiting some of the most remote and little know areas of North.

Highlights of The Trip

- Litchfield National Park
- Katherine Gorge
- Bitter Springs
- Roper Bar
- Borroloola
- Limmen National Park
- Echo Gorge
- Lawn Hill
- Kurumba
- Undara
- Atherton
- Cairns

Itinerary

---

- Day 1 (LD) Departing Darwin we will make our way to Litchfield N.P where we will spend the afternoon relaxing by the waterhole and waterfalls that have made this area famous.
- Day 2 (BLD) On our way to Katherine Gorge our camp for the night we will take time to stop at the Adelaide River War Memorial and Pine Creek. The more energetic may like to take a short hike to the escapement that shadows over the gorge.
- Day 3 (BLD) Today we travel into the land of the Never Never and our camp for the night in Elsey N.P. Be sure to have both your swimmers and camera handy. This place is truly one of the great jewels of the Territory.
- Day 4 (BLD) Today we will leave the sealed road behind and hit the dirt as we head for Roper Bar.
- Day 5 (BLD) Today we will travel through Limmen N.P on our way to our bush camp at Butterfly Springs.
- Day 6 (BLD) A relaxed start to the day gives us plenty of time to discovery the Lost City before making our way to one of the Territories iconic hotels The Heartbreak Hotel at Cape Crawford.
- Day 7 (BLD) Passing Borroloola we continue along the Savannah Way, making our way out to King Ash Bay to view the Sir Edward group of Island on our way to our camp at Robinson River.
- Day 8 (BLD) Today will see us cross into Qld on our way to Hells Gate, as we travel through vast expanses of cattle country.
